NARRATIVE:

Jeffrey Howard has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 24. His convictions include cruelty to child, assault with a deadly weapon causing great bodily injury, carrying a concealed weapon, burglary, attempted escape, receiving stolen property, grand theft of property, possession of controlled substance for sale, under the influence of controlled substances, possession of burglary tools, vehicle theft, resisting arrest, disturbing the peace, insufficient funds, possession of controlled substances and failing to report. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest being 4 years for attempted escape. Howard was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on June 22, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in January 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Howard qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for attempted escape is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
